The Easter Triduum

Thursday, April 9th - Sunday April 12th.

Dear Friends in Christ,

In the Gospel this week we hear of the Transfiguration of the Lord. Jesus, accompanied by Peter, James and John, ascends a mountain where He is revealed in His divine glory and the voice of God affirms that Jesus is God's Son: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." The scene stands in stark contrast with what occurs on the Mount of Calvary when our blessed Lord, in the midst of His suffering cries: "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"(Mt. 27:46)

As we begin to feel the challenges that develop from maintaining our Lenten observances, we come face to face with our own weaknesses and find ourselves tempted by the allure of the things that we have chosen to give up. Even so, we recall that Jesus took with Him Peter, James and John up the mountain of the Transfiguration. St. Peter would later write about the experience:

We did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received honor and glory from God the Father when that unique declaration came to him from the majestic glory, "This is my Son, my beloved, with whom I am well pleased." We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven while we were with him on the holy mountain.(2 Peter 1:16-18)

This encounter was given to them as a gift of hope especially when the hour of the Lord's passion had come. It is also a sign of hope for us as we make our way through Lent and struggle to turn our hearts away from earthly pleasures and towards the hope of resurrection. Let us encounter this hope anew when we receive Jesus in the Eucharist. Grace be with you,

Rev. Thomas J. Ward
