Dear Friends in Christ,

For the Third Week of Lent we hear in the Gospel of the woman of Samaria to whom Jesus says "Give me a drink." We come to realize that our Lord seeks her out not only to have his physical thirst quenched, but even more so, to revel His thirst for souls, especially those that are far from Him. His desire to have sinners return to Him meets the desire of every person find ultimate peace through an encounter with divine love and mercy. The Catechism of the Catholic Church speaks of the need for true happiness:

Desire for true happiness frees man from his immoderate attachment to the goods of this world so that he can find his fulfillment in the vision and beatitude of God. "The promise [of seeing God] surpasses all beatitude. . . . In Scripture, to see is to possess. . . . Whoever sees God has obtained all the goods of which he can conceive." "I want to see God" expresses the true desire of man. Thirst for God is quenched by the water of eternal life (cf. Jn 4:14).(CCC, #2548,2557)

Lent is a time for us to turn our hearts from the things of this world not because they are necessarily bad, but because there is nothing of the created world that can fulfill the heart's deepest desire. Through the gift of faith, we are given a glimpse of divine love and an opportunity to behold God's presence as He gives Himself to us in Holy Communion. The new covenant that is renewed at every mass is a moment when God's desire for our love meets our desire for true happiness. The sacrifice of the mass makes present the sacrifice of the cross from which Jesus proclaimed "I thirst!"
Grace be with you all,

Rev. Thomas J. Ward
