Dear friends in Christ,

The poem that is used for the sequence celebrating the great feast the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ has the following line: Truth the ancient types fulfilling, Isaac bound, a victim willing...

In the homilies that have been given over the past years, I have endeavored to teach you how Old Testament symbols find their fulfillment in the New Covenant. This line from the sequence reminds us that Jesus, the eternally begotten Son of the Father, is revealing through His sacrifice the faithfulness of our Heavenly Father. Abraham was required to prove his faithfulness by sacrificing his only son, even though this would not be ultimately necessary:

But the angel of the LORD called to him from heaven, "Abraham, Abraham!" "Here I am," he answered. "Do not lay your hand on the boy," said the angel. "Do not do the least thing to him. For now I know that you fear God, since you did not withhold from me your son, your only one." (Genesis 22:11-12)

An encounter with God in the celebration of the Eucharist is an encounter with His faithfulness toward us:

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. (John 3:16-17)

In the midst of all the trials we are enduring in these days, let us rejoice that we may, at long last, return to the celebration of the Sacrifice of the Mass and be reminded of God's faithfulness and be renewed by His love and grace. Peace be with you all,

Rev. Thomas J. Ward
