Dear friends in Christ,

In the readings this weekend we are invited to contemplate the gift of God's love and mercy. In the second reading, St. Paul helps us to understand the nature of the gift of God's mercy...if by the transgression of the one the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one man Jesus Christ overflow for the many.

Pope John Paul had written an entire encyclical on the Mercy of God. In it he writes the following:

*It is "God, who is rich in mercy" whom Jesus Christ has revealed to us as Father: It is His very Son who, in Himself, has manifested Him and made Him known to us... The truth revealed in Christ about God the "Father of mercies," enables us to "see" Him as particularly close to man, especially when man is suffering, when he is under threat at the very heart of his existence and dignity. And this is why, in the situation of the church and the world today, many individuals and groups guided by a lively sense of faith are turning, I would say almost spontaneously, to the mercy of God.
(Dives in Misericordia, #1,12)*

St. Paul writes elsewhere that God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved).(Ephesians 2:4-5)

Jesus reveals the gaze of love and mercy the Father has for each of us when, in the Gospel He proclaims: Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge. Even all the hairs of your head are counted.

Let us renew our trust in the mercy of God even as many reasons for fear and anxiety abound.
Grace and mercy be with you all,

Rev. Thomas J. Ward
