Dear friends in Christ,

The readings this weekend invite us to contemplate the power of the Holy Spirit at work in the Church. St. Paul, in the second reading makes it clear that one's prayer life depends on the action of the Holy Spirit:

The Spirit comes to the aid of our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes with inexpressible groanings.

Furthermore, the parables of the Gospel are to be understood as referring to the Church as she is guided by the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of truth. Jesus promised the gifts of the Spirit during the Last Supper: "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. (John 16:12-13)

The Church is the Kingdom of God on Earth and as members of the Church we endeavor to make the Kingdom of God ever more present in the world. The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains:

"The kingdom of God [is] righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit." The end-time in which we live is the age of the outpouring of the Spirit. Ever since Pentecost, a decisive battle has been joined between "the flesh" and the Spirit.

By a discernment according to the Spirit, Christians have to distinguish between the growth of the Reign of God and the progress of the culture and society in which they are involved. This distinction is not a separation. Man's vocation to eternal life does not suppress, but actually reinforces, his duty to put into action in this world the energies and means received from the Creator to serve justice and peace.(CCC, #2819-2820)

In these difficult times, let us call upon the power of the Holy Spirit that we may help bring about greater righteousness, peace and even joy in our own day.
Grace be with all,

Rev. Thomas J. Ward
