Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the malice and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

+

May the heart of Jesus, in the Most Blessed Sacrament, be praised, adored, and loved with grateful affection, at every moment, in all the tabernacles of the world, even to the end of time. Amen.

Dear friends in Christ,

I want to first thank the folks who tend to come to mass at St. Joseph Church in Boonville for your patience as we continue with the renovation of the church. These efforts will conclude soon. Please pray that all turns out well.

In the readings this weekend, we are invited to reflect on the gifts that God gives us so that we have all we need to follow His commandments. In the first reading, Solomon is praised by God because he asked the Lord not for wealth or prestige but rather, for understanding to know what is right.

This one gift bestowed by the Lord on Solomon should make us mindful of the gifts that are given to us after the first Pentecost. We receive these gifts in their fullness when we are confirmed. Furthermore, we are given not just understanding but six additional gifts as well. The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains:

The moral life of Christians is sustained by the gifts of the Holy Spirit. These are permanent dispositions which make man docile in following the promptings of the Holy Spirit. The seven gifts of the Holy Spirit are wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord. They belong in their fullness to Christ, Son of David. They complete and perfect the virtues of those who receive them. They make the faithful docile in readily obeying divine inspirations. (CCC, #1830-1831)

We also receive twelve Fruits of the Holy Spirit: The fruits of the Spirit are perfections that the Holy Spirit forms in us as the first fruits of eternal glory. The tradition of the Church lists twelve of them: "charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control, chastity." (CCC, 1832)

When we examine our consciences and discern areas where we need to do better, it is important to call upon specific gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit in order to overcome particular areas of sin. Do you lack patience? Pray for patience, trusting that the Holy Spirit will come to your aid. Does someone struggle with gluttony? Pray for the gift of fortitude and the fruit of self control.

It is good to memorize and study the gifts and fruits of Spirit so that we may more readily call upon them in times of struggle and temptation. Grace be with you all,

Rev. Thomas J. Ward
