Peace of Christ,

How often do we utter those words which Jesus said in the Gospel today? "I am troubled." I think we have all been in a circumstance where we are troubled and not sure what we are to do. Maybe not to the extent that we say to God "save me from this hour" but still we know the feeling of being troubled. Think for a moment today and reflect on some of the troubles you face in your life currently. It is important that we address the difficulties and struggles of this life so that we can let God take those from us. The beauty of the Sacrament of Confession is that when go in we may feel burdened and heavy hearted. When we leave, we should feel as though we a weight has been lifted off us. The same can go for us when we are at Mass. Have you ever just come to Mass a few minutes early and sat before the Blessed Sacrament, and gazed at the Tabernacle or the Crucifix? When we are burdened and troubled, we often face more temptation by the devil and the feeling of being alone creeps into our lives. We must be able to rise above that and realize that God is with us and desires to be with us in our troubles. What is one way you can lay your troubles and temptations down at the foot of the cross this week? Maybe you are asking yourself how can I do this? For starters, are we taking the time to pray wholeheartedly, come to Mass and receive the Eucharist, and live the commandments out to the best of our ability? These are some of the questions that we can begin to ponder and start to use them to change our lives. Is this a solution to all of our struggles and anxiety? No! but it should be able to guide us down the right path and keep us close to God when we find ourselves troubled. Take some time and pray with God today and ask Him to open your heart to His love. Let our prayer be today, Jesus, I need you.

God Bless,

Fr Matt Rawson
