thank everyone for the Birthday wishes and gifts last week. Thank you for making it such a special occasion. As we celebrate the 100th anniversary of St Mary of the Snows we also welcome Bishop Lucia who will be the main Celebrant for the Mass.

Our Gospel this weekend reminds us that we are called to slow down and see the workings of Christ in our lives. as the disciples and Jesus went to a deserted place they were immediately followed by a large crowd. This shows the difficulties of our fast-paced way of life and how we are constantly "plugged in." Summer is a great time to just learn to sit back and slow down. This is also an opportunity for us to work on our prayer life. We often focus on various types of prayer such as vocal prayer and spiritual reading. We can easily work on these but there is another form of prayer that is difficult, but a great addition to our own daily routine. This form of prayer is heavily influenced by St John Cassian, a 4th century monk learned from the desert fathers. Their methods of prayer were similar to what Jesus was teaching His disciples in the Gospel to withdraw for a period of time to be able to let the Spirit work. Similar to when priests and lay people go on retreat for a few days to allow God to speak to them. This form of prayer does not require words, but simply "being" in God's presence. Often, we are not able to express in words what we need to, so being able to just be in God's presence is a great form of prayer. In this form of prayer, we do not need to be in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, but even at camp in a quiet spot, or on the beach just contemplating God. How is God calling you to approach Him this week? What will you do to make Him part of your daily routine? Take some time and explore Contemplative prayer and just
"be" with God.

God Bless,
Fr Matt Rawson
