Dear Parishioners,

I have been asked to clarify what I said last week about wearing masks at church. The diocese has strongly recommended that we start wearing masks again for indoor gatherings regardless of your vaccination status. This is a recommendation not a mandate. The Bishop has also asked that if you are a Eucharistic minister that you would please wear a mask when distributing Holy Communion. Thank you!

Remember when you were younger, and your parents said don't do something and you did it anyway? The repercussions would often vary depending on the severity of what you did. Today the disciples were caught "red-handed." In the past Jesus had sternly warned them not to argue over positions of authority and had taught them about humility numerous times. Today we hear the disciples arguing over who was the greatest, and when Jesus asks them what they were arguing about they immediately clammed up and remained silent. Jesus then takes a child and places the child in their midst and says who receives a child in my name receives me. One would ask why he shifted the topic and didn't continue speaking about humility, but in fact he was talking about humility and service all along.

What makes you a servant? The ability to serve those around you whenever you need? At the heart of serving, is simply the ability to welcome Jesus no matter how He comes to you. How will you welcome Jesus in your life this week?

God Bless,
Fr Matt Rawson
