Dear Parishioners,

I would like to give you an update on where we stand on our Hope Appeal. Currently, we have reached $12,702.00 dollars toward our goal of $18,174.87. If you have not given to the Hope Appeal, please consider a donation if possible so that we can reach our goal by the conclusion of the campaign on December 31, 2022. I realize that this is a difficult time for many, with your generosity you can help so many people throughout our Diocese.

As we begin the first Sunday of Advent, you will notice a few things have changed around the Church. The colors of the vestments and banners have changed from green to purple. This marks not only a change in seasons, but also a start of a new liturgical year. Over the next four weeks, we will be preparing our homes for the holidays and preparing for family and friends to join us during the Christmas season. As we all know this is one of the most chaotic times of the year, and it is very easy to get caught up in the hype of the secular Christmas season. This is not always a bad thing, it is a great time of the year. How often do we take time spiritually to slow down and focus on what the advent season is all about.

This first weekend we will bless the Advent wreath and the candles which will be our liturgical reminder of what this season is all about. The season of Advent may seem very similar to the season of Lent, as the colors are similar. It is also a very different liturgical season compared to Ordinary Time or Easter. Like Lent, we take the time to slow down and reflect on what is going on spiritually in our hearts as well as in the readings during this season. Like Lent, this season is set apart, and we are on a journey. Our Advent journey will take us through a period of waiting. During that time, our Advent wreath will grow brighter as we light more candles symbolizing the light of Christ coming into this world. That light which so many people were waiting and longed to see. We have the opportunity to be witnesses to that light each day of our lives by giving glory to God for the gifts that He has given us.

As we journey through this Advent season, make that light of Christ shine brightly in your hearts by growing closer to God in prayer. When things become difficult, take the time and commit a few minutes of prayer each day or take an opportunity and join us for Adoration on Tuesday mornings following Mass. How will you grow your spirituality during this Advent Season?

God Bless,
Fr. Matt Rawson
