Dear Parishioners,

This past week, we have begun work in our parish center. The ceiling and lighting is being replaced and we will work on updating the kitchen floor as well as some of the appliances. It is a joy to begin this work and see the true potential of our parish center, and allow it to become functional again so that we can have events as a parish wide community. I will keep you posted on any updates. I would like to Thank Steve Warlock construction who is working on the ceiling and Roggie's flooring who is working on the kitchen floor.

This weekend we begin the season of Ordinary time. We will remain in this season until the start of Lent on Ash Wednesday. Our Gospel reading this weekend comes from John, and reminds us to slow down and really grasp what we are doing at Mass as well as in our spirituality. We hear John the Baptist say words that we hear directly at Mass. "Behold the Lamb of God, behold Him who takes away the sins of the world". These are the words we hear spoken at the time when the priest holds up the consecrated Host. When we hear that first word, "Behold" we are called to stop and recognize what we are actually doing and experiencing.

How often do we stop and behold the beauty of God in our own lives and recognize Him among us? This simple word "Behold" should remind us to do just that and Behold His presence in our lives. The next phrases we hear are "Lamb of God" and "Takes away the sins of the world". This should remind us that not only is Jesus the Son of God, but He is also the one who takes away our sins and forgives us. This gives us the opportunity to reflect or possibly do an examination of conscience.

As we reflect on this phrase, it should allow us to slow down and recall who the Lord is and what He has done for us. Not only does He take away our sins, but he also gives us Himself in the Sacrament of the Eucharist. His Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity, are all freely given to us. When the Priest holds up the Eucharist and says this phrase, we should really stop and take in what is occurring at that time in the Mass, and the beautiful gift God has given us in that Sacrament.

God Bless,

Fr Matt Rawson
