Dear Parishioners,

As we all know, there are many different forms of prayers at Mass, whether we are preparing for Mass to begin and we are praying for a specific intention, or we are just listening to the Eucharistic Prayer, we are engaging in a conversation with the Lord. Another part in the Mass we pray is during the Universal Prayer, also called the Prayers of the Faithful. During this prayer, we pray for the Church in general, the Pope, those who are sick, and often, various other prayer intentions.

We can see how this has shifted over the years from the Old Latin Rite to after Vatican II, which created a new set of prayers after the Creed. We call them the "Prayer of the Faithful," since the faithful pray them, or the Universal Prayer, since they intercede for the world. The prayers are in three parts: The priest introduces them; petitions follow; the priest prays the conclusion. A deacon, cantor, or someone else (preferably not the priest) announces each petition, and the whole assembly responds. Responding may not seem like such a big deal, but it really is. Ordinarily at Mass, the priest says the prayers on behalf of the assembly. He alone calls God by name. The people usually just say "Amen".

The grandest exception is the Lord's Prayer. But the Collect, the Prayer over the Offerings, the Eucharistic Prayer, and the Prayer after Communion are all entrusted to the priest. This prayer is different. It's the prayer "of the faithful." We all call God by name. We thus exercise the priestly function given to us at Baptism. Most commonly, we respond, "Lord, hear our prayer." But some other responses may be made- spoken, sung, or even silent. The petitions themselves fall into four categories and follow this sequence: First, we pray for the needs of the whole Church. Second, we pray for public authorities and the salvation of the world. Third, we remember those oppressed in any way. Finally, we pray for our local community.

Incredible as this sounds, we have complete freedom to write these texts ourselves. We rarely vary the Mass texts because they precisely articulate our faith. But the Church asks us to compose these texts, which speak the greatest needs of our community. The Prayer of the Faithful is not just another prayer. It's the priestly people fulfilling their mission to prayer for the world.

God Bless,

Fr. Matt Rawson
