Dear Parishioners,

As school season is rapidly approaching, that means our faith formation program will be beginning very soon as well. If you have not returned your registration forms yet, please mail or drop them off to the office, or even in the collection at Mass. We will need to know how many kids will be attending this year so we can get a final number for materials. There is a slight change in timing this year for faith formation, last year we split the elementary school and the middle and high-schoolers. This year we will be all together following the 9:30 AM Mass at Gill Hall.

Our second reading this weekend is taken from Roman's 12:1-2. It is a powerful passage that offers guidance and encouragement for living a fulfilling and purposeful life. In these verses, the apostle Paul urges believers to present their bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, and to not conform to the patterns of this world but be transformed by the renewing of their minds. To present our bodies as a living sacrifice means to offer ourselves wholeheartedly to God, surrendering our desires, ambitions, and plans to His will. It calls for a radical commitment, a daily choice to walk in obedience and seek His guidance. This act of surrender is not a one-time event, but an ongoing process that requires perseverance and a genuine desire to follow God's leading.

Paul emphasizes the importance of not conforming to the patterns of this world. Society often tells us to prioritize personal success, material possessions, and selfish ambitions. However, as believers, we are called to a higher standard. We are called to live in a way that reflects Christ's love and character, seeking to serve others, and aligning our actions with God's principles.

The key to living out this transformed life lies in the renewal of our minds. Our thoughts shape our actions, attitudes, and perspectives. When we allow God's Word to saturate our minds and hearts, it transforms the way we think, enabling us to discern His good, pleasing, and perfect will. This renewal process involves actively engaging with Scripture, prayer, and seeking the guidance of the Holy Spirit in our daily lives. Roman's 12:1-2 serves as a reminder to live a life of dedication, non-conformity to the world's standards, and the constant renewal of our minds. It challenges us to offer ourselves fully to God, seeking His will above our own desires. By embracing these teachings, we can cultivate a fulfilling and purpose-driven life that brings glory to God and blesses those around us.

God Bless.

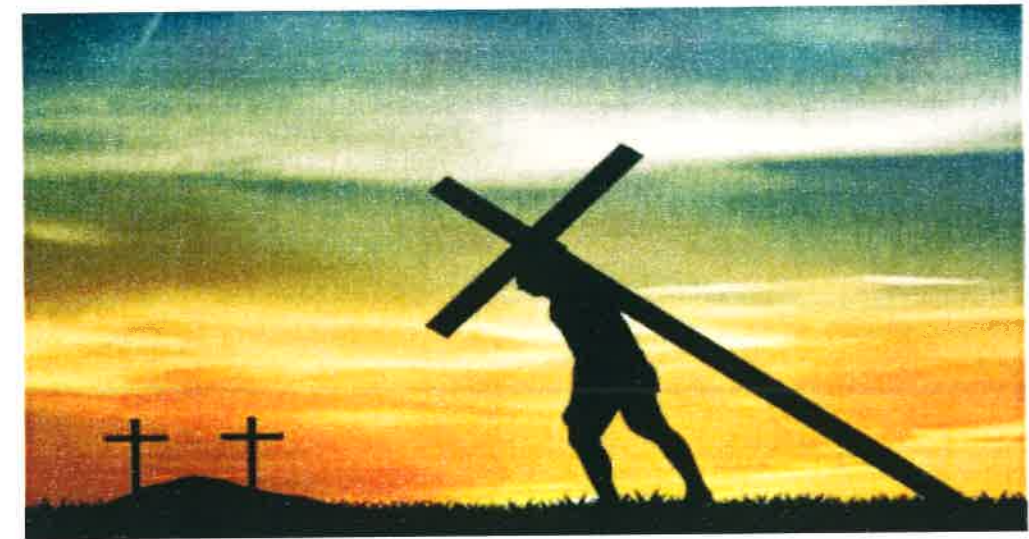

Fr. Matt
