Dear Parishioners,

There are many parts of the Mass. The introductory rites of the Mass play a vital role in setting the tone and preparing the faithful for the celebration of the Eucharist. These rites, consisting of the entrance, greeting, penitential act, and Gloria, are rich in symbolism and serve as a way to gather the community and foster a sense of unity and reverence.

The entrance procession marks the beginning of the Mass and symbolizes the journey of the faithful towards God. As the priest and other ministers enter the church, accompanied by sacred music, they remind the congregation of their role as pilgrims on the path of faith. This procession also serves to bring the community together, as they witness and participate in this solemn ritual. Following the entrance, the celebrant greets the assembly with a sign of the cross, invoking the presence of the Holy Trinity. This greeting highlights the communal nature of the Mass and serves as a reminder that the faithful are united in their worship of God. The celebrant's words of welcome also create a sense of hospitality and inclusion, inviting all present to actively participate in the liturgy.

The penitential act follows the greeting, offering a moment for the faithful to acknowledge their sins and seek God's forgiveness. This act of contrition allows for personal reflection and prepares the heart to receive the grace of the Eucharist. The communal recitation of the Kyrie eleison, meaning "Lord, have mercy," further emphasizes the need for God's mercy and forgiveness. The Gloria, a hymn of praise, is then sung or recited by the congregation. This ancient hymn echoes the song of the angels at the birth of Christ, proclaiming the glory of God. The Gloria serves as an expression of gratitude and adoration, lifting the hearts and minds of the faithful towards God.

The introductory rites of the Mass hold great significance in the liturgical celebration. They gather the community, foster a sense of unity, and prepare the faithful to encounter God through the Eucharist. Stay tuned next week for the next part of the Mass explained!

Have a Blessed Week,
 Fr. Matt

In addition, anyone interested in occasionally helping with packing food for distribution and restocking shelves please call us to find out more about how we serve the community. We would love to have you join our team.
